Brimfield Awakening <http://www.brimfieldawakening.com>

In May 2017 two friends, Kim and Nisha, drove up to the Brimfield Antiques Show. On the last day, they got up early to scour the fields one last time. There was a particularly musty smell in the air, and that was when they came upon a vendor with multiple trash bags strewn across plastic tarps. Following their noses, they began to go through the bags, unearthing orphan quilt blocks....and then, a block was pulled out that they had never seen before. They purchased the block and strolled around the fields wondering what this beautiful design was. Later that day, at lunch, the girls texted their friends and tried to find information on their phones. They mused that there was no way either would machine piece this – it HAD to be EPP. And here we are today. Kim Martucci is a former meteorologist and coaches rowing for the Springfield High School girls' team. She has two young kids and lives in Northern Virginia. Nisha Bouri is crazy and runs a consulting company and also is getting a Masters' Degree. She lives outside of DC on the Maryland side.

Heather Kojan <http://www.heatherkojan.com>

I have been sewing since my teens and quilting for more than 25 years. My first quilt was an Eleanor Burns Quilt in a Day. Since I had a king-sized bed, it made sense to me to make a king-sized quilt. Go big or go home, right? That quilt was in shades of mauve and dusty blue (hello mid '80s!) Let's just say my fabric tastes have changed since then! I consider myself a modern quilter, with traditional roots. I am the founder of the Baltimore Modern Quilt Guild and love speaking to different groups and sharing the modern aesthetic. I am foremost a teacher, teaching modern quilting classes in local shops, guilds and shows across the country. I am a contributing author to the book Classic Modern Quilts and a featured quilter in The Improv Handbook for Modern Quilters by Sherri Lynn Wood, and 50 Little Gifts published by Lucky Spool. You can frequently find my work in Quiltmaker's 100 Blocks Magazine and Modern Patchwork Magazine. Let's connect! You can find me on my blog: www.heatherkojan.com or on Instagram @heatherkojan.

Patty Murphy <http://www.pattymurphyhandmade.com>

Co-founder of Create and Sustain. Designer. Quilter. Author for C&T. My mother taught me to sew as a child, and I started to quilt when I was 18. I left the zippers behind for a quilting needle and have not looked back. Just before my oldest was born, my quilt, All Squared Up, was featured on the cover of the Better Homes & Gardens Quilt Sampler magazine. I've had work published in magazines, and on blogs for major fabric manufacturers. I teach a variety of classes at my local quilt shop and I love helping quilters solve problems. In April 2021, I launched Create and Sustain with co-founders Jennifer Sampou and Kristi McDonough. Create and Sustain is a non-profit focused on using art and education, to help shift environmental changes using our collective voice in the quilting, home sewing, and craft industries. <https://createandsustain.org> In my spare time, I enjoy cooking, gardening, and time with my family.

Suzi Parron <http://www.barnquiltinfo.com>

Suzi's interest in quilting history led her to fascination with barn quilts, which she discovered on a cross-country camping trip in 2008. A high school English teacher, Suzi spent two years documenting the barn quilt movement, traveling to twenty-nine states, gathering stories of these painted quilt patterns and their ties to family and tradition. The resulting book, "Barn Quilts and the American Quilt Trail Movement," was published by Ohio University Press in 2012. The success of "Barn Quilts" led to a second book, "Following the Barn Quilt Trail," published in April of 2016. Suzi gives talks on barn quilts to quilting groups, libraries, and other civic organizations. Her barn quilt painting workshops have added over three thousand quilt blocks to the landscape, from California to Massachusetts. Suzi and her husband, Glen, left Georgia behind in 2013, in their RV and have called the road their home since. They return to the South each year to celebrate the holidays with family and to spend time kayaking on their favorite Georgia and Florida rivers.

Marisela Rumberg <http://www.quiltsbymarisela.com>

For years I used to say, "I'm an economist" and lived the life of a busy career woman. Then I fell in love with a wonderful man who followed me all the way to Mexico and insisted on marrying me. When I got pregnant with my first child, I knew I did not want to go back to working crazy hours, but I needed something to do. And then I discovered quilting. I became entranced by the textures, colors, combinations, and shapes that result from making a quilt. Now, quilting, once a hobby, is my passion and I love to say, "I'm a quilter." I am honored that some of my quilts have won awards and have been featured in quilt shows around the world. I am a member of Studio Fiber Arts at the Workhouse Arts Center in Lorton, Virginia, where I currently create and exhibit my art. I love to share my enthusiasm and passion for quilts and Zentangle®. I teach classes at several venues in Northern Virginia and, because I am bilingual, I also teach and promote the Zentangle Method® and the Art of Quilting in Spanish. My trademark technique, "Free Motion Quilting is Brain Training," has given many who felt intimidated by quilting the confidence to enjoy being creative. My classes and workshops are designed to inspire and set your inner artist free.
